11 v.

12 UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON,

13 Defendant.

Case No. C10-1371RSL

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL DATE AND
DENYING MOTION TO AMEND

15 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant's "Motion For New Trial
16 Date" (Dkt. # 112) and "Plaintiff's Motion to Amend the Complaint and for a Protective
17 Order" (Dkt. # 114). Having reviewed the memoranda, declarations, and exhibits
18 submitted by the parties, the Court finds as follows:

19 Defendant's motion for a new trial date is GRANTED. The Clerk of Court
20 is directed to issue a case management schedule consistent with a trial date of April 9, 21 2012. The parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to reach agreement regarding the 22 scheduling of Dr. Wise's testimony or alternative means through which her testimony
23 can be presented at trial.<sup>1</sup>

24
25 <sup>1</sup> Footnote 1 of defendant's motion notwithstanding, the Court expects the parties to 26 engage in substantive discussions regarding scheduling issues and discovery matters before they

NEW TRIAL DATE AND DENYING MOTION TO AMEND

1 Plaintiff's motion to amend is DENIED. This matter was on the verge of
2 trial when plaintiff's counsel was permitted to withdraw. The association of new
3 counsel is not an excuse to add additional causes of action or rethink plaintiff's litigation
4 strategy, especially where the withdrawal was necessitated by plaintiff's own conduct.
5 Considerations regarding undue delay and prejudice show that amendment is not
6 appropriate. The deadline for amending the complaint has long since passed. In order to 7 gain certain litigation benefits, plaintiff expressly stated that she would not seek
8 emotional distress damages and would agree to a bench trial. Dr. Baiocchi, while aware 9 of this litigation and the need to be available as a witness, has not had an opportunity to
10 prepare an individual defense to the existing federal claims, much less a new state law
11 claim.

13 For all of the foregoing reasons, defendant's motion for a new trial date
14 (Dkt. # 112) is GRANTED and plaintiff's motion to amend (Dkt. # 114) is DENIED.

15
16 Dated this 8th day of February, 2012.

25 amenable to creative solutions for obtaining her testimony at trial, including audio and/or visual available options prior to the pretrial conference scheduled for February 22, 2012.
